

Similarities between Christianity and Hinduism:

There are some similarities between Hinduism and Christianity which are explained below:

- Life after Death:

Christians believe that a righteous person will live eternally with God in heaven, while the wicked will suffer for eternity in hell as punishment for their unbelief. In Hinduism, life after death is called reincarnation in which every human being begins another life in an alternate physical form after experiencing a natural death.

- Birth of Christ and Krishna:

Both Jesus Christ and Krishna were given birth by their virgin mother with their spiritual fathers. Both of them also underwent fasting and meditation to connect with their spirituality. Both performed many miracles and taught great lessons to humanity. Despite their power, both of them remained meek and humble. Both of them also resurrected from the dead.

- Teaching on Morality:

Christianity and Hinduism teach morality in their religions. Both the Christians and Hindus were taught about the values of peace, forgiveness, love, generosity, simplicity, spirituality, prayer, self-control and many more.

- Holy Days:

Christians have the Lord's Day, Advent, Christmas, New Year, Lent, Easter, and Pentecost. The same way Hinduism there is Diwali, Holi, Janmashtami, Ganesh Chaturthi which are the Holy Days in Hinduism.
